I go to the bathroom and sit alone on the toilet inearly broke a leg racing to the restroom. I let my hair fall all over my face and I look away. I got sacked from a job after 2 months because I cried nearly everyday - so how can I make the deep reathing and counting work for me? Like yellerlay uggg it was sooo stressful and my kitty had been missing for a couple of days. Also, I cried when I worked for babies R us. I walked through the kennel today and cried as I saw a beautiful Australian Shepherd puppy, with ice blue eyes, playing with his own tail. And crying is not ok. I was in tears when I found out about the budget cuts in my home state of AZ. I find an empty corner and just jump around and shake my lambs for a few minutes or so. I wasnt in a stall; I collapsed on the floor and screamed.

Then, I worked on my resume.

What a great way to not be taken seriously! Try pinching yourself behind the knee or biting your lip. Go to a bathroom stall. When you come out with red puffy eyes, and swollen face, blame it on allergies. Go somewhere like an empty park and shout as loud as you can, "I think I need Conflicting Parts Integration!" So, why are you hypersensitive? The next time something that you will cry over occurs tell that person that if they ever do something like that to you again that you will kill them. Play to their desire to end the situation. I'm not that creative with my words maybe you can better express but look at them like an animal. Of course, deny your threat if questioned. Emotions lead that we are anthropomorphic. Not only will it make you feel better, it'll make the people, especially in my experience, men people, less uncomfortable.
